

Spring Poems Puzzle

Baker, Erica, Lara, and Will each had fun writing a poem about a different springtime topic. Use the clues to decide which person went with each of these topics: baby animals, baseball, daffodils, and kites.

1. Will wrote about living things.
2. Somebody wrote about a topic that starts with the same letter as their name.
3. The people who wrote about kites and baseball asked Erica to draw pictures to go with their poems.
4. Will told the person who wrote about flowers that he liked the poem.

	baby animals	baseball	daffodils	kites
Baker
Erica
Lara
Will

Use the grid, if you would like, to eliminate possibilities. Put an "x" in a box if you know a name doesn't go with a topic. Put an "o" if you know it does.
