

Writers' Riddle

Leah, Ralph, Katie, and Mario each wrote about a different animal: penguin, gorilla, ostrich, and dolphin. They each presented their writing piece (story, poem, play, or report) to the class on a different day this week. Use the clues to match each writer with the correct animal, writing piece, and day of the week.

1. The boy who wrote the poem was out sick on Wednesday and Thursday.
2. Leah and Ralph both wrote about mammals.
3. The story on Tuesday was about a funny dolphin.
4. Katie presented before Leah but after Mario.
5. Katie's report gave lots of interesting information.
6. Neither girl wrote about an aquatic animal.

	penguin	gorilla	ostrich	dolphin	story	poem	play	report	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.
Leah
Ralph
Katie
Mario
Mon.
Tues.
Wed.
Thurs.
story poem play report

Solution to Writers' Riddle

Leah presented her gorilla play on Thursday.

Ralph presented his dolphin story on Tuesday.

Katie presented her ostrich report on Wednesday.

Mario presented his penguin poem on Monday.