

Writing for Children's Magazines - An Ezine

[Evelyn Christensen: Received from the editor 9/10/15]

Writer's Guidelines for Girls' World and Animal Tales

- We accept short story (fiction) submissions of between 1,000 and 1,200 words.
- We pay $100 upon publication and buy all rights.
- The story should be previously unpublished.
- For Animal Tales, the story needs to have an animal theme. For Girls' World, the story should feature characters who are girls ages 6 to 12.
- We look for positive stories that are uplifting, fun and entertaining. Characters should set a good example.
- Stories should stand alone, not be part of a series.
- We do not publish poetry.
- We write all our non-fiction and craft stories in-house.
- Stories should be submitted via mail and include a SASE. Send manuscripts to: Marisa Sandora, Girls' World or Animal Tales, 270 Sylvan Ave., Englewood Cliffs, NJ 07632